

Washington - Today, Congressman John Olver (D-MA) announced that the final version of the

"This legislation will help ensure that local dairy farmers can stay in business," Olver s

The dairy provision will involve federal payments to dairy farmers when prices for milk

"The Farm Bill will help small dairy farms across the country, and in that sense it is an

Funding is retroactive to December 1, 2001, and the program is funded through Sept

For more information about the Farm Bill dairy provisions, contact Robert Gray, Exec

###